CHURCHES PRAYING WITH CHRIST'S AGENDA

When Jesus' followers asked him to teach them to pray, he gave them an agenda for prayer with a strong missional emphasis - in its vision for the growth of God's kingdom and fame, and in its recognition of the needs of us, His people on His mission.

Join Anthony Adams, Andy Upton, Alok Srivastava and fellow-delegates from the Radstock network to explore how our churches can share Christ's agenda.

Andy has served as a pastor of Knighton Evangelical Free Church in Leicester, UK for over 10 years, and is a member of Radstock's board. He has been involved in mission in the UK, Kenya, Lebanon, Romania and Latvia.

Anthony is a church planter in Derby, UK, a school teacher and UK Director of Radstock Ministries, whose role has so far taken him to Ukraine, India and the Balkans.

The conference runs from a buffet supper on Thursday 25th February to the afternoon of Saturday 27th

Our venue once again is Frontier Centre (UK postcode: NN9 5UH), "a 120-acre rural venue in the heart of England with stunning views along the beautiful Nene Valley". It is easily reached from the M1, A1 and Wellingborough station, and Luton and Stansted airports are not far away.

The programme will include plenary teaching sessions, corporate prayer, an Opportunities Fair and our popular seminar-style 'connect!' sessions - covering practical steps in global mission involvement and profiles from around the world.

Representatives of churches in Albania, Cambodia, India, Ireland, Mongolia, Russia, UK and USA already plan to come with their news, prayers and mission opportunities.

So come and get praying with Christ's agenda - and get connected for global mission!
